

FIRST SERGEANT JIMMY AKUNA

Inspirational Instructor, Legendary Leader

1SG Jimmy Akuna was the Army Instructor of the JROTC program at St. Louis high school for thirty years. He fostered national pride, taught leadership skills, military skills and life skills. 1SG Akuna's tutelage has motivated cadets to better themselves, better the community and better the world. St. Louis and sister school cadets have attended West Point, the Air Force Academy, the Naval Academy, became officers and NCOs in the military, joined law enforcement, became teachers, business leaders and productive members of society.

His legacy lives on through the lives and actions of the St. Louis High School and sister school cadets.

This JROTC battalion is dedicated in memory of his devoted service.
