

FIRST SERGEANT JIMMY AKUNA, U.S. ARMY (RET)

Inspirational Instructor, Legendary Leader

1SG Jimmy Akuna was the Army Instructor of the JROTC program at St. Louis High School from 1990 to 2020. He fostered national pride, taught leadership skills, military skills and life skills. 1SG Akuna's tutelage has motivated cadets to create a better world through self-improvement and community service. St. Louis and sister school cadets have attended West Point, the Air Force Academy, the Naval Academy, military colleges, became officers and NCOs in the military, joined law enforcement, became teachers, business leaders and productive members of society.

His legacy lives on through the lives and actions of the St. Louis High School and sister school cadets.

This JROTC battalion is dedicated in memory of his devoted service.

Saint Louis High School 1SG Jimmy Akuna JROTC Battalion

"Rangers Lead The Way"

Dedicated in 2020

