

FIRST SERGEANT JIMMY AKUNA, U.S. ARMY (RET.)

Inspirational Instructor, Legendary Leader

First Sergeant Jimmy Akuna was Army Instructor of the JROTC program at Saint Louis High School from 1990 to 2020. He fostered national pride while teaching leadership skills, military skills, and life skills. First Sergeant Akuna's tutelage has motivated cadets to create a better world through self-improvement and community service. Saint Louis and sister school cadets have attended West Point, Air Force Academy, Naval Academy, and military colleges and become teachers, business leaders, law enforcement officers, military officers and NCOs, and productive members of society.

His legacy lives on through the lives and actions of the Saint Louis High School and sister school cadets.

This JROTC battalion is dedicated in memory of his devoted service:
Saint Louis High School First Sergeant Jimmy Akuna JROTC Battalion
"Rangers Lead the Way"

Dedicated in 2020
