

Jerry Mason, ICRMP Board Counsel

*Trusted Advisor, Dedicated Public Servant,
Local Government Expert*

Idaho Counties Risk Management Program is forever grateful for the dedication and insightful counsel Jerry Mason has provided this organization. He played an integral part in the formation, administration, and success of ICRMP. Jerry's extensive public service includes providing legal counsel and training to the members of the Association of Idaho Cities, Idaho Association of Counties, numerous individual Idaho public entities, as well as serving thirty-two years as ICRMP Board legal counsel. In recognition of his longstanding service, steadfast commitment, and prudent counsel, ICRMP is proud to honor him with this commemorative plaque.

The logo for the Idaho Counties Risk Management Program (ICRMP) features a square icon on the left composed of a grid of smaller squares, with the letters "ICRMP" in a bold, sans-serif font to its right.
